This should be a “living document” , put on the website and updated often. Links to upcoming trainings with postings on Facebook and other social media. See if we can build an email list through this (Rick). Identify who the training is geared for i.e., consumer, physician, nurses & practitioners, pharmacists. Also, for next month incorporate others who post similar such as Harm Reduction. Dr. Ramers trainings are targeted for professionals. Ronie Marks from NY has a Hec C Mentor & Support training that we could follow to draft our own version since NY’s population is very different from San Diego. Need to identify areas of greatest need in county.
